An experienced private guide will take you around the magical Old Town: up to the Castle and Cathedral on the Wawel hill. Sticking to the Royal Route, you go down Kanonicza and Grodzka Streets to see the ancient Jagiellonian university areas, and then a gentle walk leads you through the largest mediaeval square in Europe. While there, you can stop to visit the oldest shopping mall, the Sukiennice cloth hall, and then the Church of the Virgin Mary (including the magnificent Gothic wooden altar by Wit Stwosz). The tour finishes at the fortified city walls beside the Barbican Gate.

As this is a private tour the guide is at your disposal and the programme can be modified at any time according to your wishes. If you want to include Kazimierz, then you can spend less time in the Old Town – please feel free to tell your guide what you want to see and do.
