The traditional nobility mansion where Chopin was born is now a museum and a focal point for admirers of Polish "poet of the piano". This was the place where his parents met (the father Nicolas, a French teacher from Lorraine and the mother Tekla, a relative of the mansion owners & aunt of the first US administrator of Alaska). The property is surrounded by a splendid park where you can take a short walk after the sightseeing.

From Zelazowa Wola, we drive to Brochów to see the parish church, the only example of a Gothic-Renaissance fortified church in Poland. The wedding of Chopin's parents was held and Chopin was baptized there. Return to Warsaw in late afternoon. End of the services.

Optional: longer stay in Warsaw or travel to other Polish cities. Consult us for more ideas!

If you would like to learn more about Chopin's life, choose one of the longer trips: The Prelude of Chopin (4 days) or The Ultimate Chopin Tour (12 days).
