Icons of Prague

What a Gem!

Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic, is considered one of the world's greatest architectural treasures. Its skyline, dotted with hundreds of Gothic spires, gives the city a fairy-tale charm. The real magic, however, lies in its maze of medieval streets, stunning Baroque, Neo-Renaissance, Art Nouveau, and Art Deco buildings, and its striking contemporary design. Prague's rich and eventful history makes it a favorite destination for those with a passion for culture and romance.

The city's left riverbank was historically home to nobility and royalty, with its most significant landmark—Prague Castle. Once the seat of Czech kings and several Holy Roman Emperors, the castle complex, together with the magnificent St. Vitus Cathedral, remains Prague's most recognizable symbol.
